Ski-U-Mah

This famous Minnesota phrase, pronounced SKY-YOU-MAH, is more than 125 years old. In 1884, two Minnesota rugby players, John W. Adams and Win Sargent, tried to think of a fitting team yell. They used the word "Ski", a Sioux battle cry meaning victory, and combined it with "U-Mah" (representing the University of Minnesota and rhyming with "rah-rah-rah") to create a team cheer. The phrase stuck and was incorporated into the "Minnesota Rouser."
