President's Report for July

I hope you are all enjoying your summer which is swiftly slipping by us. Thanks to all of you for your commitment to our performances so far. We have another event upcoming that I hope you can support because it is a money maker for our chapter and that is the brat sales event in River Falls in August. Please sign up if you are available.

I also want to thank Mac Barlass for getting us involved in the Stillwater theatre play "The Music Man". It was a big commitment but well worth the exposure to our barbershop chapter locally and to our hobby in general. Hopefully, we might even gain a couple of new members because of the play.

I also want to acknowledge Wayne Elsenpeter, one of our newest members, for getting himself prepared to sing with us at Como Park last Tuesday. That's the dedication we enjoy seeing.

PRESIDENT ROGER

MUSIC MAN

Roger Bosmoe, Loren Paulson, Mac Barlass, Jack True & Ron House on the train to open the Music Man show.
