PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Another successful week-end for the Croix Chordsmen! I thought everything went very well with the contest, the Saturday evening meal and Sunday's church event. Thanks to everyone for all the planning and your great attendance these past months. It all pays off.

When I mentioned my goals as president, I wanted us to finish 7th or better in the District competition. Well, 8th place is just fine when you consider we had 19 choruses competing.

Thanks again!

VETERANS DAY SERVICE

For the past several years the Croix Chordsmen have been a big part of the Stillwater Veterans Day service at Trinity Church. This year the service will be held Sunday November 8th at 2 P.M.

The "Red Bull Division" of the National Guard from the Stillwater area is currently deployed in Iraq. The "Yellow Ribbon" committee and the Veterans Day committee along with the Commander of the Red Bull Division are working on a live telecast from Trinity Church to Iraq to beam the service to the troops. After the service family members of the soldiers will be able to talk one on one via the telecast hook-up to their loved ones on the front line.

This will be an historic event, and one we need to be at full strength for. Please, please, please check your schedule now, and save Sunday November 8th @ 2 P.M. to sing with the chorus on this very special occasion. Sign-up sheet is available!!!!!!

Uniform:

Full Casual uniform w/shiny shoes.

Wear your service medals
